FHANA's NEW Logo

FHANA would like to introduce you to our new logo. FHANA has developed a logo to work in conjunction with the KFPS logo and further support our relationship with the KFPS, The Original Studbook of the KFPS Friesian Horse.

But don't go throwing away your old FHANA clothing just yet, we have incorporated our current FHANA logo into the new logo. Stay tuned as we develop a clothing line with our new FHANA logo...

President's Message

Inspections are coming up fast...make your plans for attending and start the necessary training for your horses so they are presented at their best... We anticipate a series of clinics by our KFPS judges again this year, and will try to plan a bit better for them this year. Judges will be announced soon..just need a final ok from Annet!

As Jason said we are rolling out a new logo this year, tying into the new KFPS logo, as are most of the affiliates worldwide. Look for it to be appearing of FHANA things this year.

I hope everyone who is breeding and foaling is having good luck...go enjoy your horses!

Calling all Ster, Crown, or Model Mares...

In 2014 the KFPS changed their rules. If you now bring your Ster, Crown, or Model Mares to the inspections, you will not be in jeopardy of being down graded. If a horse does not receive a premium, or a lesser premium, it will not be reflected on the horses papers.

Model Mares inspected will receive a 1st premium.

Stallions inspected will only be judged from ster or no ster.

So what are you waiting for? Sign up your horses now, who knows you may just have a ster mare that may make crown.

2015 Keurings...Never to early to start planning

It is never to early to get a jump on the 2015 Keurings. Planning has already commenced and exciting things are going to take place at each and every keuring location.

KFPS Judges to conduct Judging Clinics and IBOP Clinics at each and every site as time allows. Please watch the FHANA website for details.

Stallion Owners Offer incentives for Keurings

It Isn't Too Early to Start Thinking About the Fall Keurings!!

Keuring season will be here before you know it, so start making your plans now. Many of our Stallion Owners are offering fabulous new incentives to encourage you to show your foals as well as your adult horses. Also, FHANA is initiating a new major award in the form of the VANDERPLOEG North American Breeder's Award to recognize the top young mare shown each year.

And just in case you missed this important rule change last year, you can now show your star mares and geldings without fear that they could be "downgraded" to a lower rating. So bring your best and try to move up from second premie to first, to Crown or Model, or aim for Champion of the Day!

Here are some of the keuring incentives being offered by the Stallion Owners with regard to the offspring of their stallions. Check their respective websites for the details.

Maddis Friesian Ranch, home of Doaltsen 420 and Andries 415
MFR is offering cash incentives as well as stud fee discounts just for bringing your horses to the keuring! Also applies to offspring of MFR-owned mares, regardless of the sire. See details at www.maddisfriesianranch.com/index.php?pname=incentives.

Friesian Focus, home of Monte 378

Any premium received by a Monte offspring will win a 20% stud fee discount, and any Monte offspring winning Ster or higher earn a free stud fee for re-breeding of its dam. See www.friesianfocus.com for details.

Friesian Connection, home of Mintse 384,

Fridse 423, Date 477 and Alert 475

Mintse offspring win a $2000 cash prize for a first premie as an adult. First premie foals sired by Fridse, Date and Alert win the breeder a free repeat stud fee to re-breed the same mare to the same stallion. See details at www.friesianconnection.com under News.
